Settings – A Happy Ending for the Gingerbread Man

Objective: to create a setting for the gingerbread man's island

Think about the island. It was exciting but no one else lived there.

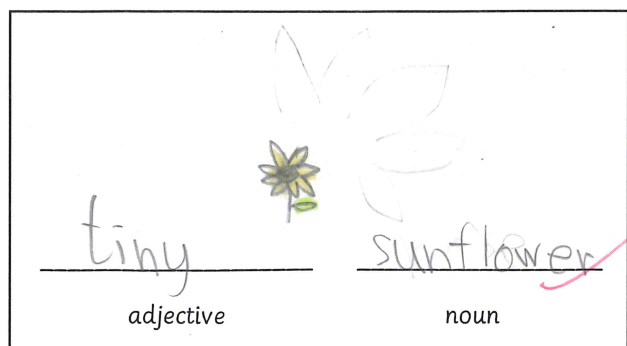

Write and draw your ideas about what the gingerbread man might find.

1. What different places were on the island? Use adjectives.

2. What lived on the island? Use adjectives, too!

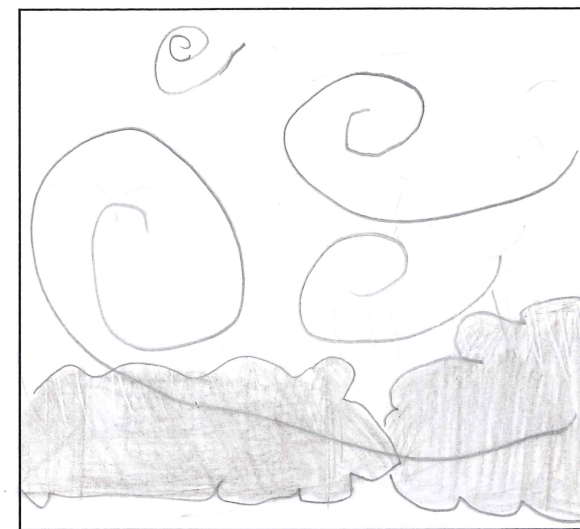

Plants

Animals

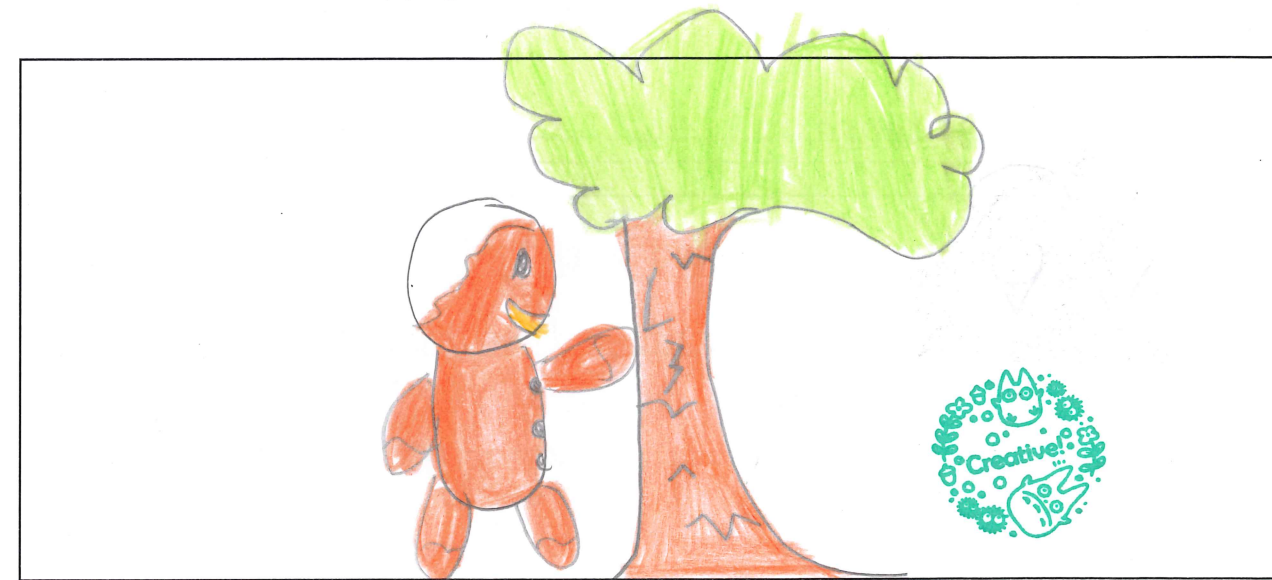

3. What was the weather like on the island? (**Recap from Unit 2**)

Weather windy and foggy
Temperature 14 °C
Humidity
The air feels dry.
UV Index low

4. What did the gingerbread man like to do the most on the island?

How did he live happily ever after?

He liked to punch hard trees the most because he wanted to protect himself from predators, so he wouldn't get attacked from predators and lived happily ever after.

A muscular gingerbread man?
