People celebrate this festival because back in 1862

250 years ago, on 5th May 1862, the best soldiers in the world went to Mexico to start a Battle. Mexico was really surprised but they still started the Battle of Puebla. Luckily, Mexico won!

CINCO DE MAYO is celebrated by Mexicans and Mexican Americans.

This festival takes place in a street somewhere in Mexico!

ACTIVITIES

The includes eating tacos and quacamole which you refill as much as you can. You could also dance with music. (some music like EIREY by Vicente Fernandez are usually played because of their popularity) There are piñatas for children to play. (In a long time ago the piñatas were made out of clay which is very easy to break open, so they changed the materials to boxes and added feathers on top.) After they decorate their home, they will go out doors with colorful clothes.

FUN FACT: There is a parade for Chihuahuas every year! The most cute chihuahua gets to be a king or queen for the whole day!
