My rhyming poem
By Bella Lai 5A(13)

The ocean lies beneath the Sun
When sea creatures play and fun
People catch fish for a tasty dish
Turning the sea's bounty into a wish

But when the sea's is no longer bright fishermen's fades from sight
So let the water thrive and swish
for in my heart, this is my wish

My rhyming poem

Hiking

Hiking is a sport that is boring, the stairs on the mountain makes you tiring.

The road on the mountain is endless, the heavy bag you carry makes you hopeless.

At the middle of hiking, you don't have food you need, so don't try hiking, because you won't succeed.

If you try it, then you will cry, so if your parents ask you to do so, don't go try.

Rhyming poem:Shopping mall

I see bright, colorful toys.
I hear joyful laughter.
I smell caramel popcorn.
I taste crunchy waffles.
I feel amazing.

I smell donuts, fresh and sweet,
The sweetness floats from down the streets.

I see the fashion clothes on a shows furthermore, the price was very low,

I hear great music loud and dear. kids are laughing for and near.

I touch the toys, and funny skirts,
and soft new shirts.

The mall is very busy and very cool,

I like to go to there after school.
